NAP Version 1.3.9 Release Notes

This is a synopsis of the new and corrected functionality included in NAP version 1.3.9. The primary objective for this release is to improve efficiency for account administrators and address security audit concerns.

Installation

No user action is required.

New or Changed Functionality

- The status of a user account will now be automatically set to Removed by the system if it has not been used (logged into) for more than 330 days.

Reports Changes

- None

Additional Change Requests and Defects Fixed in this Version

- None.